About Me

Passionate Full-Stack Developer and BICT undergraduate at the University of Kelaniya, specializing in the MERN stack with growing expertise in Next.js and TypeScript. I love building fast, scalable, and user-friendly web applications from frontend to backend. Actively seeking an internship opportunity to contribute and grow.

Self-Learning

Continuous self-learner with hands-on project-based learning. Regularly practice using official documentation, online courses, and technical tutorials to strengthen full-stack development skills.

Currently Learning

- Advanced Next.js (Server Components, SSR, API Routes)
- TypeScript for scalable frontend architecture
- PostgreSQL with Prisma ORM
